CHAPTER 3

HISTORY CLASS AND BEES

Skyler and Bobby arrived to school at 8:45AM, just in time for History class. They walked into the classroom. "Today, we will be learning bout Luke Babyface". After the teacher said that, everybody burst into laughter. Then the teacher screamed, "EVERYBODY, BE QUIET! He was the one who invented the pooper scooper". Everybody burst into laughter again.

BuzzzzzzBuzzzz. Skyler had just released 100 bees out of his shoebox. Then everybody left their seat and started running around waving their arms in the air while screaming. Then Mrs. Dot, the teacher, threw some random pollen out of the window.

Next, all the bees flew out of the window, so she shut the window super-fast and said, “Alright, kids. I’ve taken care of that. Let’s get back to learning about Luke. Skyler, in my office NOW! And bring your shoebox!”

Skyler and Bobby arrived to the principal’s office in about 30 seconds. “Sit down!” boomed the principal. “I didn’t do anything”, exclaimed Skyer. “Don’t play dumb. No one would bring a shoebox filled with bees to school.” “My shoebox has my Air Jordan’s in it” Skyler protested. The principal ordered Skyler to open the box.

Skyler had it planned. He put sleep juice in his shoebox, so the bees wouldn’t make noises. Then when he went into class, he poked a hole in the bottom of his shoebox. All the sleep juice spilled onto the blue and white tile floor. After about 2 minutes, all of the bees woke up and started causing commotion. Then Bobby slipped a pair of nice, black and green pair of Air Jordan’s out of his desk and put them into the shoebox. It was perfectly planned.

The principal had an eyebrow raised while looking down at the shoebox. Skyler then looked down into the box and he saw a piece of paper with all of his plans to make the class go crazy. Skyler freaked out. “Who could have done this?!” Then the principal yelled, “Detention for two hours – go think about what you have done.” Skyler opened the door and walked to the desk that said, “Reserved for Skooter”.
