Wishing Tree

By: [redacted]

Oh tree oh tree you act always so free
When i wish on your leaves i'm always at ease
You never fight
Even if im up tight
Oh tree,oh wishing tree, you are always there for me like when i lost somebody who I loved who i can not love anymore
You were the one who collected my tears and got me through the horrible dark/scary times.
You held my hand
You got me through those scary/dark times.
