

The PLAY DATE

I just couldn't wait. I had gotten all the toys and presents ready. Mom "Let's go" I said. "Don't rush me or you won't go and do you want to ride your scooter or bike" my mom said back. "I'll ride my scooter mom" I said. I was going to the park to see Cecily, my best friend I know. I shouldn't be this excited about it but first it was summer and I hadn't seen her in a while. Second it was my first play date with her. Once my mom was ready I hopped on my scooter and headed to the park fast. I was holding two paper bags. They were the presents for Cecily. Mom had bought some toys. When I got to the park I jumped off my scooter and yelled cecily's name. I was so happy. I ran to her and asked if I could hug her because she does not like hugs a lot. She said "yes" so I did. I gave her my presents and said hello to Rosie, cecily's sister. Evelyn, and Eliza. Rosie and Evelyn are both older, but they are good friends of mine. Eliza is about 4 but she is sometimes <sup>very</sup> fun but not a lot. Cecily thanked me for the present and I followed her to the car as she put the m away we talked all the way there. Evelyn and cecily had presents for <sup>looked</sup> me. It was in a bag it <sup>looked</sup> like origami. When I was told what it was, I was happy it was dragon claws you can put on. You can also put them on one on the other and it looks like a full dragon, voila! Also there were two sets one for each hand. One was blue the other was Red but I could mix and match them also. ~~It~~ It felt weird to grab stuff with them.

We tested it out and we all laughed at comments we made about the feeling.

Me and Cecily made a funny play using the dragon claws stacked we showed the parents. They laughed and said it was good. (But I could tell they did not care). After we showed everyone there. Me, Cecily, Evelyn, Rosie, and Eliza did hard riddles and talked about them. After we were done we got bored. But I had an idea it was to play a dragon sloth game. Me, Cecily, and Eliza were sloths and Rosie and Evelyn were dragons.
