May 24 2014

It was a sunny warm day in New York City, New York. The streets were busy as always, people were enjoying the sun, but I wasn't. I was flying to the Bahamas to see my dad on my moms private plane. Why? My mom and dad had a not so friendly divorce two years ago and I was going to the Bahamas to visit him. I was really upset about the divorce but happy I was going to see my dad. Suddenly, BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM! HOLY GUACAMOLE!" my mom yelled. "WHAT IS HAPPENING!" I shouted. "WERE CRASHING!" mom shouted. "BOB, DO SOMETHING!" Bob was my moms personal pilot, BOOOOOOOOOOOOM! "GET THE PARACHUTE!OH AND ALSO FIRST AID KIT!" my mom yelled. She quickly gave me the first aid kit. "Wait, are you coming?" I screamed. WHOOSH! She pushed me off the plane as fast as she could. "NOOO!" I yelled. I started to cry uncontrollably.

**guacamole is a mexican sauce used on doritos**

When I landed with the parachute on my back I searched what was in the backpack,there was a first aid kit,a bag of fresh water bottles and a surviving kit.in front of me was cliffs and palm trees.it seemed like there was no civilization.and man, was I thirsty! I took a water bottle and drank it enthusiastically.then I started looking for a place where i was going to build my shelter, since i was going to build my shelter. Somewhere after 5 minutes I was already prepared to build my shelter. I got my sticks ready, but only how? Suddenly I got an a idea how do build a shelter,how about i put the sticks that i found,so i started building my shelter i puted the sticks like a triangle shape,first the biggest stick then the 2nd biggest stick and so on hand on.after I finished building my shelter,I searched for food i went into the jungle,OW! I yeld,I quickly looked at my arm. There was a HUGE sunburn,then I started looking for aloe plants for sunburns.hhhhhs! A snake slippered through a bush OHMIGOD! I yelled,then I searched for any bites. After what happened I started looking for aloe plants again, somewhere after about 15 minutes I finally found an aloe plant WOW I thought ,good job I said to myself.now i quickly rushed back to my shelter.KRAKHHHH!finally! I yeld,finally i broke it!! continued,I dug into the plant and put the aloe on my badly burned arm. Aaaahh, i calmly said.I felt a cool feeling. After that I needed to find food once again I went to the jungle i walked and walked till, yes! I screamed yes! I saw a palm tree and on the palm tree there were fruits,fruits that I didn't know what kind of fruit it was.BUT i still got a big rock and throwed it and the fruit so that i could eat it,WHOOSH!! missed it but that didn't make me give up ,WOOOOSH BAM! I hited the fruit,and when the fruit fell to the ground I quickly rushed to the fruit,when I got there I picked up the fruit.to heavy! I yelled, throwing it to the ground BAM! It broke right open.I picked up the left side of the broken fruit,less heavy, I thought I licked the inside of the fruit.hmmmmm! The fruit tasted sour and sweet at the same time.After i ate the fruit i went back to my shelter and inside the shelter I got some leaves,putting them inside my shelter for bedding,falling asleep.

Uuuuugh,mom? I said I woke up,oh, yes the shelter and I went into the water,then I went out and took a drink of water from the water bottle in the backpack,after that I went inside the jungle again,for breakfast.BAM! I hitted the same fruit again yesterday.TTTTTTTTTT! A helicopter was flying threw the island as soon as I saw the helicopter I waved and screamed as hard as I could.the pilot seemed like he didn't hear or see me.finally the helicopter glided away,seeing no sign of me.'NOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!' i yelled.and went back to my shelter.

I probably slept for 3 hours. When I woke up it was DARK like very DARK,I couldn't see anything. So I went back to sleep. On the 3rd day surviving on the island,i started fishing before that, i went into the jungle starting to look for long sharp sticks i walked and walked until i found a PERFECT VERY PERFECT for catching fish to make it sharper i scrapped it with the same rock i used to hit the fruit that i ate,anyway i used the tip of the rock to scrap the spear for fishing once i was done i went to the beach where the beach and my shelter,when i was back with the spear i went into the water and waited and waited and waited finally..... There was a whole school of fish! I quickly got the spear aimed at one of the fish and SPLASH! I MISSED.MISSED.but the school was still there so it didn't stop me so once again i got my spear ready aimed at a fish and,SPLASH! Suddenly there was blood in the water. Did I just catch a fish? I thought to myself YES! YES! YES I DID! I could see the fish trying to escape and blood pouring out where I stabbed it.i raised the fish up in the air so that it couldn't breath.it seemed to struggle when i raised it out of the water,trying to escape.but didn't care so waited and waited until the fish stopped to move,after that i went back to the surface.when i got there there was only one problem.i needed to start a fire in order to cook the fish."i should get some sticks to start a fire" i say,then i went into the jungle to find sticks,30 MINUTES LATER."AHA!"I yelled and finally I found enough sticks to start a fire,after that I went back to my shelter.how do i start a fire? I thought to myself, maybe try rubbing two sticks together.WOOSH! WOOSH! WOOSH! WOOSH! I was rubbing the sticks as hard as I could" UUUUUUUUGH!! yelled in an annoying voice.right when i was about to give up a little sparkle came up,"YES!"I yelled i put the sparkle where I assembled the rocks from the beach and arranged it in a big circle. Then with the fish I washed it in the water. Then I stuck a leftover stick into the middle of the fish where I stabbed it,then I raised it on the top of the fire.and waited until the fish was cooked enough to eat it.mmm! It tasted like tuna but salter and sweeter,SUDDENLY tttttttttt! There was a flash but I couldn't see what it was ,"HELLO? WE WERE SENT HERE FOR A RESCUING MISSION" IM HERE IM HERE! I yelled as hard as i could but again i wasn't loud enough to let the rescuers to hear me,just when i was going to give up the helicopter landed.THERE YOU ARE!! A buff looking coast guard agent yelled.there were 2 other guys in the apache coast guard helicopter painted in red and yellow,;"the whole team's been looking for you since the day you crashed on this island"your mom is waiting for you" suddenly,i felt funny.like i was going to faint"UUUGH" BAM!!! 5 hours later...
