When I went to Disney world...
WHOOSH! Hi! That's the sound of our car going fast on the highway on the way to the Airport! Me, my mom, dad brother and two sisters were in the car, plus we were meeting my grandparents at the Airport. After we got into the Airport we had to wait! I hate to wait! waiting... waiting... Wait! is that the sound of the announcements saying that our flight is finally ready to board?
Yes! It is! We get on the flight and take off! The flight was pretty short because I have been to California and the flight there is FIVE hours. Next we got off the plane and we got our rental car. We went to Walmart on the way to our rental house. And we got a meal! I love dinner! (especially for that night. And I mean LATE! I stayed up until 1:30! Good night! The next day we went to EPCOT at Disney world. We first had to check in.

After we checked in, we got in line for a ride called "Frozen ever after." The wait time said 20 minutes, but it was actullay one HOUR!

Here we go, waiting again... Ah! finnaly! It's time to get on our boat! first, we went up a lift hill. Next we turned around and started going backwards!!!!!! I put my hands up in the air! At the end of the ride, we got splashed with water! That was my least favorite part.

we got lunch at Italy. *Note: italy is part of EPCOT'S World Showcase not the real thing! We got in line for our next ride called:

"Mission space." It was sort of a VR kind of thing. We got into our spaceship. My brother did not like it. On the ride we saw all these famous landmarks like the great pyramids of Giza and the leaning tower of Piza. After the ride we took a little break until our next ride.

Once we were ready, we went on our next ride called: "Figment: journey into imagination." We got into our ride vehicle. We got to experince all five senses. My least favorite part was when we smelled skunk!

Finally, we got in our car and went back to our rental house and went to bed. The next day we were going to Magic Kingdom. The first thing we did was ride a roller coaster. It was called Big Thunder Mountain. It was hard to see where we were going so that made it more exciting. My nana put her coffee on the ride and it spilled! I kind of liked that ride. I also liked a ride called Pirates of the Caribbean. It had one drop but it was just a slow boat ride. Then we got Starbucks and went back to our rental house. The next day we had to go home. I had a great trip to Disney World!
